HALF-FARE.

The Missouri Pacific railroad will return all who come to the Great Democratic Rally and Mass Meeting, next Saturday, for one-half fare.

Democrats of Bates, Saline, and other neighbor counties, coming along the line of this road, come up and join us in a glorious, rousing, old-fashioned Democratic Hand-Shaking and Jollification! Frank Blair, John Shields, John B. Clark, Jr., and J. P. Strother will roar.

Keevil's Hats for Caucasians!

MULE THIEVES.

Night before last, some unknown scoundrels led four horses from the neighborhood of El Dorado, which had at one end of it, a mule being led by T. P. Fitzgerald. Pursuit was made, and this dispatch just received by attorney Hall, shows the result:

ATKELVILLE, October 4, 1872.

A. J. HALL—Sir: Horse thieves arrested; come at once by private conveyance. Answer, W. M. FITZGERALD.

MAMMOTH BEETS.

This is the age of beets, huge beets, dead-beats. The most gigantic one of the whole crop is the rumbling, jolting, jolting, dead-beat of dead-beet-wholesalers top and rotten heart poll their White House hot-beds. The next biggest to him are certainly to be seen at the Caucasians' meeting, the type of men devils—but two whoppers just left with us by Howell-Houston, the German Valley. They are magnificent blood-reds. One weighs 12 pounds, 12 inches, in circumference. The large weighs 5 pounds 7 ounces; the medium 4 pounds, 12 ounces; the two, 10 pounds, 4 ounces. *

STOCK ITEMS.

Henry Deale, of Saline county, who took several premiums on his hogs, at the fair Wednesday, has on the grounds eight thoroughbred Berkshires, on which he has, this fall, taken $300, at the various fairs of the state. He is a breeder and importer of fine hogs, and has been a model farmer of our neighbors. He swept away a number of them in his first show, and with the only ones left, has been

Jas. O. Lewis, proprietor of the noted School of Painting, has a number of his students of the Infants of the Lafayette Agricultural Society, and is a member of the same.

Isaac Davis, one of the leading leather dealers, and Capt. John Quisenberry, incoming. Quisenberry says that tobacco stores are in a panic. It is only a question of time when they will be glutted.

Sabbath School Convention, Rogers Division, has been opened. It is a great success, and encourages the extension of our schools throughout the country.
